

The Kentucky State Arsenal: Home of the Kentucky Military History Museum

Here is an architect's concept of how the building could look after renovations are complete. To complete the building's renovation, $1.8 million is needed.

The State Arsenal now serves Kentucky as the home of the Kentucky Military History Museum. Here the Kentucky Historical Society presents exhibitions, programs, school tours, and Museum Theatre to promote greater understanding of Kentucky's military heritage.

Join with the Kentucky Department of Military Affairs, Kentucky Department of Veterans Affairs, and the Kentucky Historical Society to support military-history programming. Contact the Kentucky Historical Society Development Office at 502-564-1792 or visit www.history.ky.gov.

Artifacts in the Kentucky Historical Society collections sometimes need repair. This saddle from the Mexican-American War awaits conservation. Through the Kentucky Treasures Endowment Fund military artifacts are purchased, preserved, and presented to the public.
