

The Kentucky Historical Society and the Kentucky Genealogical Society present
Family-History Workshop*

"Abraham Lincoln's Heritage" and
"The Genealogy of Mary Todd Lincoln"

Saturday, February 7, 2009*

10:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Thomas D. Clark Center for Kentucky History

Is there such a thing as a "self-made" man? Were Abraham Lincoln's accomplishments the results of superior genetics or environment? Both? Stephen A. Brown of the Abraham Lincoln Birthplace National Historic Site will help you decide during the morning program.

In the afternoon, Gwen Thompson, director of the Mary Todd Lincoln House in Lexington, Ky., will discuss the genealogy of First Lady Mary Todd Lincoln.

Registration before noon on Friday, February 6, is required. Workshop participation is complimentary. A light lunch is available for registrants only from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. for $6, payable at the door. For more information or to register, call 502-564-1792, ext. 4460, or email Refdesk@ky.gov.

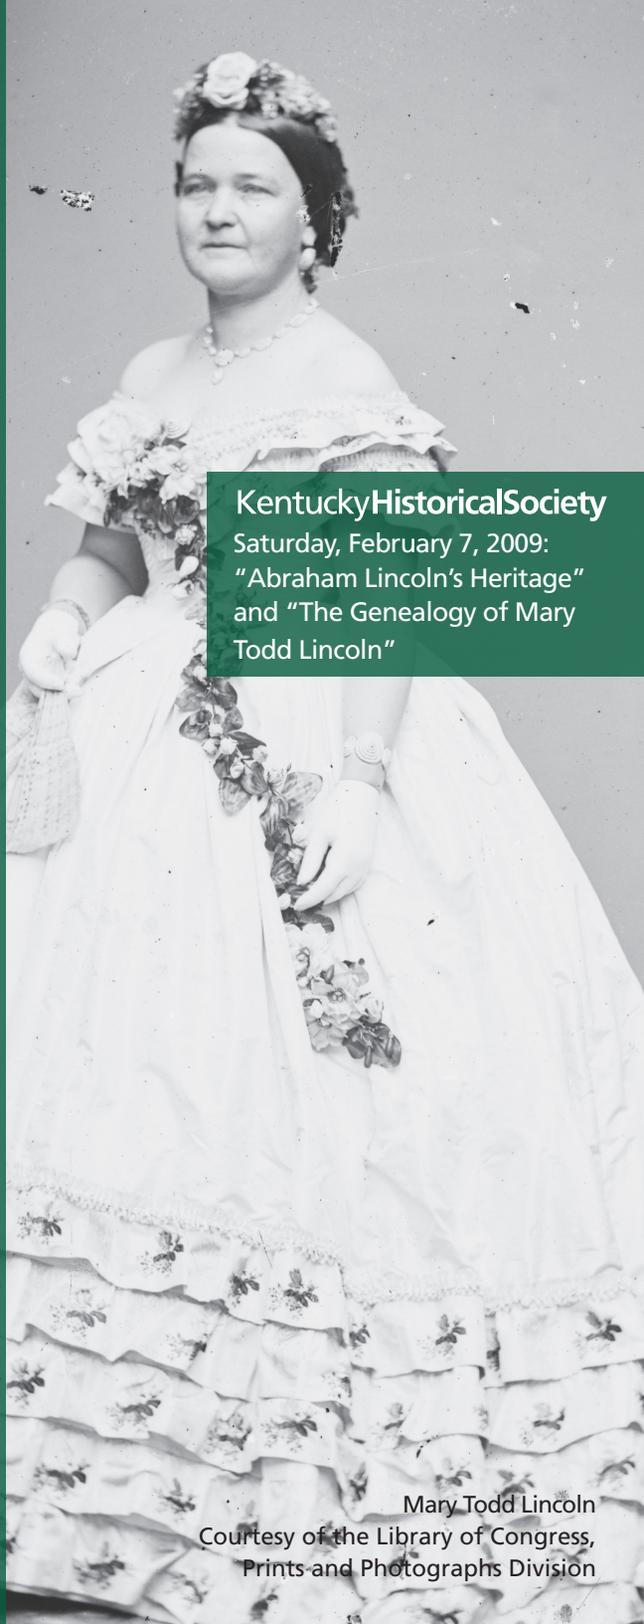

Presentation by KTIG

Following the close of each Family-History Workshop, the Kentucky Technology in Genealogy Users Group (KTIG) offers a program to help support family-history researchers' use and understanding of technology as it applies to genealogy. All interested persons are invited to participate in the free monthly program at 1:45 p.m.

*Note that this Family-History Workshop will take place on the first Saturday of the month, not the second.
